

RAILROADS PAUSE IN WORK

UNIVERSAL TRIBUTE OF RESPECT
PAID TO HARRIMAN.

For One Minute Not a Wheel Turns on
Harriman Lines Centering
In Ogden.

Pursuant to an order issued from the general offices of the Harriman system of railroads, every wheel was stopped, every laborer threw down his pick and shovel, and every clerk in the employ of the vast railroad interests controlled by the late Edward H. Harriman, paused for one minute in their duties yesterday afternoon, simultaneously with the beginning of the funeral services of the dead railroad magnate at his beautiful home at Arden, N. Y.

From coast to coast, and in Mexico, where the Harriman railroad interests have extended, business was suspended for one minute as a mark of respect to the dead captain of industry.

The order was observed to the letter, over the entire system. Engineers and train crews doing all in their power to maintain their schedules, at 3:30 o'clock and at corresponding hours brought their trains to a full stop for the period mentioned.

At all important stations along the Harriman roads, and passenger stations were draped in black while the funeral services were being conducted in far away New York.

The interior of the Union depot, and the local offices of the Utah Light & Railway company were garbed in sombre black, under the direction of local officials Saturday afternoon.

PEACH DAY EXCURSION TO BRIGHAM CITY.

Sept. 15th, 75c round trip. Special trains leave Ogden 9:30, 10:30, 11:30 a. m., returning leave Brigham 6:30, 8:30, 10:30 p. m. Free lunches, free watermelons for everybody.

RAILROAD COMPANIES ISSUE NEW TIME CARD

A new time table which went into effect yesterday has just been issued for passenger trains on the Oregon Short Line, Union Pacific, Denver and Rio Grande and Southern Pacific Railroad companies by the Ogden Union Railway and Depot company.

But few changes in train schedules are made from the last time table, which went into effect August 22.

No. 2, the eastbound Overland limited on the Union Pacific Railroad, instead of meeting No. 1 Overland limited westbound at Ogden at 3:50 p. m. will leave for the east at 2:30 p. m. daily. Southern Pacific Overland limited No. 2 now arrives from the west at 2:10 p. m. instead of 3:50 o'clock.

On the Oregon Short Line No. 6, the local for Salt Lake, instead of departing at 8:30 a. m. now leaves the Union depot at 8:10. No. 13, the Portland express on the same line, now departs at 1:10 a. m. each morning, which is five minutes earlier than the former schedule.

PRETTY WEDDING AT THE HOME OF SAMUEL AUSTIN

The marriage yesterday afternoon of Miss Beatrice Austin to Carl G. Schilling at the home of the bride's parents, 2548 Lincoln avenue, proved a very happy affair. The members of the bride's family, G. B. Montgomery of San Francisco, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, and immediate friends attended and all extended the heartiest of congratulations. Rev. J. E. Carver officiated and the ring ceremony was very impressive.

The happy young couple received many presents and after a sumptuous wedding feast departed for the east on their honeymoon trip, amid a shower of rice and old shoes.

They expect to visit relatives of the bridegroom in the east. Upon their return they will make their home in Ogden.

Nothing is better for polishing brown boots than melted beeswax applied with a cloth and rubbed in.

WEBER ACADEMY DISPLAY IS WANTED AT STATE FAIR

That the exhibits at the Four-State fair are appreciated by outside as well as local people, is evidenced by a letter received by the Weber Academy from the secretary of the State fair association yesterday. Secretary Horace S. Ensign says that he, with other members of the board of directors had the pleasure of seeing the school exhibit this week and desire the same exhibit at the State fair.

The Weber academy exhibit has attracted considerable attention from others who have visited the fair during the past week. The display is in charge of Miss Zina Larkin. The different results accomplished in the fourteen courses in the domestic arts department are shown in a creditable manner.

Five prizes have been awarded to the academy exhibit by the judges. The exhibit was given first place on a general display with a cash prize of $7.00 and a gold medal and first prize for Battenberg work. The handwork and display of sofa cushions by the academy were awarded second place and the monogram third place.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE ORPHEUM.

Clara Nelson and her company in an electrical Gibson Girl Review is the headliner of an exceptionally good bill which opened at the Orpheum theater last night. Miss Nelson, with the assistance of Harry Turpin and company, presented several living pictures of the best known Gibson portraits, which were admirable copies of that famous artist's work. Miss Nelson is a typical Gibson girl—a beautiful woman—and the excellent stage setting added wonderfully in her presentation of her act. The three musical selections of the piece—particularly "The Gibson Sailor Girl," were appreciated by the crowded house.

The McGrady's, in a novelty arrangement shooting and equilibristic act, were received with favor. The flag stunt at the end of their turn was really clever and brought forth much applause.

Miss Ruby Raymond and company, offering "The Street Urchins," a song and dance act, were generally well received. The act was generally well received. The act was generally well received. The act was generally well received.

Marselles, a novelty gymnast and contortionist, performed some wonderful feats with his limbs. He twisted his body into every possible and impossible position and just as easily untied himself again. The stage was set in black and white, with special electric lighting effects, adding much to the success of this clever entertainment.

Julius Tannen, with amusing monologue, greatly pleased the audience during the first half of his turn. His jokes were for the most part, part of his stories told in an imitative manner that was well liked.

The three Denais, the European Hercules, were scheduled to appear, but the management announced with regret that the act must be withdrawn for a time, owing to an accident which occurred Saturday afternoon to one of the trio.

Miss Josephine Morrison, a soloist and harpist, was an extra number on the card. She rendered two pleasing selections on the harp and received the favor of the house. Her singing and accompaniment were very good and served as an excellent substitute for the Three Denais.

This bill will run during the week, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

LEILA M. PETERSON AND JOHN L. MAHER MARRIED

On the evening of September 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson, was solemnized the marriage of their daughter, Leila M., to John L. Maher, a popular railroad conductor of this city. Rev. P. M. Cushman officiating.

The bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of white lingerie and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, while the groom was faultlessly attired in black. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served in the tastefully decorated dining room.

The young couple will be at home to their many friends after October 1.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF Y. M. AND Y. L. M. I. A. HELD

The Young Men's and the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement association of North Weber stake held their annual conference yesterday. The first meeting was held in the Weber academy at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and the second meeting was held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the Third ward meeting house. Both meetings were presided over by Superintendent Henry Anderson.

These meetings were for the officers and teachers only, and matters of detail and plans for the next year were talked over.

In the evening a third meeting was held in the tabernacle. The same also presided over by Superintendent Anderson.

Mrs. Maude D. Porter sang "Fear Ye Not, O Israel," and Organist Samuel Widtaker played a selection.

Mrs. Augusta M. Grant of the general board of the Y. M. I. A. was the first speaker of the evening. She gave an outline of the work contemplated for the ensuing year and asked for the cooperation of the parents in the furtherance of the work.

James H. Anderson of the general board of the Y. M. I. A. followed Mrs. Grant. He dwelt upon the good work that can be accomplished by the Mutual Improvement association and said that the development had been rapid and encouraging to all.

One of these will probably be the abandonment of the Sunday afternoon chapel exercises, which will be supplanted by a literary and musical program on Sunday afternoon. When the weather permits sacred concerts will be given on the lawn by the school band.

The new superintendent and his assistants will introduce other features at the school for the moral uplift of the juvenile delinquents from time to time.

Superintendent Eggersten took as his subject "The Boy David," and delivered a very pleasing and instructive sermon.

The services were opened with the anthem "Jesus, Once of Humble Birth." After the opening prayer this was followed by an organ solo, "Evening Hymn," by Schneider, executed by Organist Sam Whitaker. The next musical number was a solo by Miss Myrtle Ballinger, accompanied by a male chorus selected from the choir.

The solo parts were rendered exceedingly well by Miss Ballinger, and the chorus showed that much preparation had been put on the selection.

After the address of Superintendent Eggersten, Miss Ruby Geddes, accompanist by the choir, sang "Hosanna," by Granter.

Although the choir has not been together since early in July the music rendered at yesterday's service was superb. The voices blended well and the choir is well balanced. To a casual observer it would appear as though there had been no cessation of practice during the summer months.

The speakers were Bishop Joseph Martin, Bishop E. Buckman, Patriarch P. G. Taylor and Peter Folkman. Music was furnished by the ward choir and Fred Kinley sang "Sometime, Somewhere."

Interment was in the Plain City cemetery.

Liquor Gets Better of Colorado Man. Women living in Farr West telephoned the sheriff's office yesterday that there was a man there who was thought to be crazy, and who was terrifying the residents in that section.

Deputy Sheriff Hutchings of Plain City was detailed to look into the matter. He found a man with his coat and vest off in the middle of the road, attempting to convince those within earshot that he was not the perpetrator of a serious crime which he was under the impression had been committed.

Deputy Hutchings placed the man under arrest and brought him to the sheriff's office. He gave him the name of Jim McCann, and was found to be suffering from delirium tremens.

The officers placed him in the padded cell. Frequently he imagines he is tapping beer from a spring in his bed and he invites the officers in to have a glass with him.

He says that he came from Colorado and intended staying in Ogden. He started to drink in Pueblo and before he reached here liquor got the better of him.

Ogden Stake Holds Priesthood Meeting. The regular monthly priesthood meeting of the Ogden stake was held yesterday. About three hundred members of the Latter-day Saints church, representing the office, relief society, Mutual Improvement association, and primary departments, were in attendance.

President Kimball of the St. Joseph stake of Arizona was the principal speaker. At the conclusion of his address the organizations of the stake held individual meetings, at which the work of the approaching month was reviewed.

DISCON FJRT CAUSED BY LACK OF HEAT AT REFORMATORY

The crisp cool weather of the past few days has caused considerable inconvenience at the State Industrial school, as it has been impossible to heat the buildings, owing to the unfinished condition of the central heating plant under construction.

Superintendent Gowans said yesterday that an extra force of men has been put to work on the plant under the direction of Construction Superintendent Highman, and that the building will probably be completed by October 1. Work on the girls' new cottage is also being pushed forward, and this building will probably be ready for occupancy November 1.

The completion of the cottage will result in moving the girl inmates from the present building reserved for them opposite the main building, and the transfer of the younger boys into the old cottage. The superintendent hopes by the segregation of the male inmates of the school to improve present conditions. As nearly as possible boys of a more vicious nature will be separated from the youngsters who have lesser inclinations to criminality.

When these changes are effected, Superintendent Gowans has under contemplation other changes which he believes will work to the benefit of the inmates of the school.

Sunday Exercises. One of these will probably be the abandonment of the Sunday afternoon chapel exercises, which will be supplanted by a literary and musical program on Sunday afternoon. When the weather permits sacred concerts will be given on the lawn by the school band.

The new superintendent and his assistants will introduce other features at the school for the moral uplift of the juvenile delinquents from time to time.

Funeral Services of Mrs. Ada Taylor and Baby. The funeral services for Mrs. Ada Taylor and her infant child were held in the Plain City meeting house yesterday forenoon at 10 o'clock. The services were presided over by Bishop Henry Gardner. The services were well attended and the speakers were sympathetic in their eulogies. Her loss is mourned by Mr. Taylor and seven children and by the entire community in which she lived.

BEER OUTPUT SHOWS A DECIDED INCREASE

An increase of 45.4 per cent in the manufacture of beer in Utah last year over 1905 is shown by the report of H. T. Haines, commissioner on statistics, just compiled. This means an increase from 99,477 gallons in 1905 to 144,593 gallons brewed in 1908. And in spite of the increase the good people of Utah consumed only 5 per cent less of the beer manufactured in 1908 than was consumed three years before.

The figures for 1905 were the latest obtained by the bureau of statistics, and the figures for last year, just compiled, showed a large increase in the business of the five breweries of the state. Four of the breweries are in Salt Lake and one in Ogden. The local breweries are Salt Lake City, Wagener's, Fisher's and Peter Butler's. The Becker brewery at Ogden is the only other one in the state. The amount of beer sent out from each brewery is as follows:

With the increase in the amount of beer manufactured is a corresponding increase in the business done by the brewers. The value of the beer manufactured has increased from $731,327 in 1905 to $1,016,924 for last year.

A neat sum of money is paid to the 212 employees of the five breweries, as the report shows that a total of $224,740.12 was paid out by the five breweries during 1908. The average day's work amounted to 8.7 hours, showing that the brewery workers are keeping close to the state statute of eight hours constituting a day's work.

A total of $1,564,076.23 is invested in the beer business in Utah, as shown by the report, as against $989,819.78 for 1905. This is represented by the value of the buildings, the machinery, tools and other property. It does not show a great increase over that of four years ago, indicating that the installation of new machinery has had much to do in increasing the output without a large expenditure of cash.

Bransford Will Run for Mayor in Salt Lake City. John S. Bransford will be a candidate for mayor before the American party convention, which will meet in the Salt Lake theater on Tuesday, September 28. This conclusion was reached on Saturday, when a letter was transmitted to the mayor, signed by E. A. Wall, W. Mont. Ferry and others. The letter is as follows:

Letter to Mayor Bransford. "Salt Lake City, Sept. 10, 1909. "Honorable John S. Bransford, Mayor. "Sir—The undersigned, having carefully observed your relationship to public affairs in this city, and who approve the conservatism and business-like character of your administration as mayor of Salt Lake, address you on behalf of a large portion of our fellow citizens, who sincerely believe it to be of the highest interest to the general well being of the city and the community in which she lives, that there should be no interruption of the administrative policy which you represent, and upon which large investments have been made and are now being made."

"Confidence in your integrity and breadth of reasoning; the ample evidence you have given that your aim as mayor has been to faithfully serve all of the people, and to characterize your administration by the selection of subordinates as well for their fitness as for their political relationship; your apparent determination as a public officer to do all in your power to secure to the people a just return for public expenditures; are potent reasons for the request we earnestly make of you that you consent to again offer yourself to the people as a candidate for mayor."

"We are informed that your personal desires are not to again occupy that office, and that these desires are prompted by considerations both weighty and sufficient, but we earnestly hope that upon further reflection you will consent to our request in the interest of multitude to business conditions, now much disturbed by fears of a radical change of administrative policy, and in the interest of the continuation of the settlement and investment which have brought to Salt Lake the interested attention of the whole country."

"This request is made without any purpose of reflecting upon the high character and competency of other candidates for the office of mayor. All other announced candidates we hold in great esteem, but guided by the experience of the past, now being repeated in the doubts and uncertainties among investors, and the business disquietude now prevailing, we sincerely believe that the best guaranty of the continuation of Salt Lake's present growth and business prosperity will be given by your election to the office of mayor."

"You enjoy a large measure of public confidence. You will be generally accepted as a safeguard against the interruption of city growth and need expenditures. We promise you in return for the sacrifice your consent will involve, our personal and financial aid in the coming campaign and our loyal support of your administration, if the people shall be fortunate enough to retain you at the head of municipal affairs. Respectfully yours,

"E. A. WALL,
"W. MONT. FERRY,
"W. W. ARMSTRONG,
"W. J. HALLORAN,
"TONY JACOBSON,
"A. FRED WBY,
"G. S. HOLMES,
"C. H. TRENT,
"HENRY NEWELL."

Submitted in Afternoon. This letter was submitted to Mayor Bransford on Saturday afternoon. Saturday evening the mayor submitted a reply, in which he says he will be a candidate. His reply is as follows:

"E. A. Wall, W. Mont. Ferry and Others: "Gentlemen—Your communication at hand, in view of the request made by you, in view of the talks and requests made by others, if the American party desires me to again lead them in a campaign, I will be a candidate for mayor, subject to the decision of the convention to be held on September 28. I thank you and all those who have been my friends in the past, who are my friends now, and especially do I thank the people of Salt Lake who, by the large plurality given me at the election two years ago, elected me mayor of Salt Lake City. If the American convention shall name me as their candidate I will do as I have in past campaigns, everything in my power to lead the party to victory."

"JOHN S. BRANSFORD, Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 11."
